

These color groupings can be used in different combinations on walls, trim and ceilings; even as inspiration for furnishings and accessories.

Color groupings can also be used to drive the color scheme throughout your home. Simply choose a grouping that fits your style and use the main color in a large or central room. Then use the accent colors for the walls in adjoining rooms. This will make the spaces flow together seamlessly and bring a subtle sense of coordination to the whole.

Choosing a color scheme for your space should be a fun and exciting experience. Start by looking for an object with colors that you really like, such as a rug, pillow or painting, that can serve as your inspiration piece. Then you can choose one of those colors to use for wall paint and find fabrics and other coordinating items to place around the room.

Below you'll find a variety of great color combinations that include one "main" color and two "accent" colors that can help create the perfect look for any space in your home.
